

MASCF XXVII

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thursday, October 1

Join the annual "gunkholin" overnight trip to Wye Island. Contact Pete Leshar for more information at widgeon@verizon.net. Pre-registration is absolutely required.

Friday, October 2

Arrive anytime; registration booth opens at 2 pm. Spend the day getting reacquainted, setting up your campsite, and messin' about.

5:30pm – Informal Cookout

Bring your own delicacies to grill, Museum provides soft drinks and a sampling (not enough for dinner!) of local seafood.

8:00pm – Sea Shanty Demonstrations (Under the big tent)

In collaboration with TSCA

10:00pm – Quiet time for campers

Late-nighters should remain in the cookout area

Saturday, October 3

Messin' about starts anytime you want!

7:00am – Coffee, donuts, muffins, and like fare available

Served in the Van Lennep Auditorium till about 9:00am

8:30am – Registration booth reopens

9:00am – Judging begins

9:00am – Craft Workshop (Van Lennep Auditorium)

Broaden your "off-the-water" nautical expertise and learn to make a net bag. All materials provided.

9:30 – Until – "PDRacer" 8 Foot Boat and Sail Construction

Open to all, drop by and lend a hand. Small crafters will build the very popular 8 foot Puddle Duck Racer, a small and ultra simple sailboat that can be made with materials from Lowe's or Home Depot.

With luck it will sail on Sunday!

9:30am – Kid's model building and sailing (Under the big tent)

Join George and Marla Surgent under the tent. Launching to follow on the Steamboat Building deck

10:00am – Watercolor Workshop (weather permitting, on the waterfront)

Join Karen Rutherford on an excursion into the world of watercolor painting

10:00am – 4:00pm – On-going Demonstrations (Near the Steamboat Building)

The folks from Chesapeake Wooden Boat Builders School are back to demo a variety of maritime skills, including painting, varnishing, oar making, and fitting out sails

10:00am – 4:00pm – On-going Demonstrations

From splicing to spar making, CBMM shipwrights will share secrets of the trade

10:30am – Log Canoe Edmee S. Tours (Waterman's Wharf)

Join Capt. Marshall Patterson and crew for a sail on the his log canoe Edmee S. (weather permitting)

10:30am – Noon (or until they run out) – Grab a Dog!

If you want a quick bite to eat, hot dogs are available under the big tent till noonish or the dogs run out!

Noon – Sailing skipper’s meeting

Followed by the sailing races at 1:00pm

2:00pm – Rowing workshop for kids

Get the “skippers-to-be” ready for the races to follow

3:00pm – Rowing skipper’s meeting

Followed by the rowing races at 3:30pm

3:30pm – Kid’s kite making workshop (Van Lennep Auditorium)

Design and construct your own kite.

6:00pm – Dinner is served (Under the tent)

Awards ceremony to follow

7:30pm – Keynote Speaker: John Brady of the Independence Seaport Museum

John Brady, who heads the Workshop on the Water at Philadelphia’s Independence Seaport Museum, will talk about his most recent, and recently launched, project, the 33’ catboat Silent Maid and other goings-on in his shop

(After Speaker’s Remarks) – Andre De Bardelaben

Join Andre on the deck of the Steamboat Building for star gazing and astronomy talks

Sunday, October 4

Messin’ about starts anytime you want!

7:00am – Coffee, donuts, muffins, and like fare available

Served in the Van Lennep Auditorium till about 9am

9:00am – Worship on the Water (Steamboat Building)

All are welcome

10:00am – Three-legged race

Located in the harbor near the Museum’s docks

10:30am – Scavenger Hunt

Kids of all ages are invited to meet under the tent for a pirate adventure. Bring your friends, siblings or parents along to help you find the treasure! Starts underneath the tent

Noon (or sooner) – Swap meet (Under the tent)

Bring nautical items to swap or sell.

2:00pm – Wrap up meeting

All are welcome. Critique MASCF XXVII and make suggestions for MASCF XXVIII.